

LIVING & SYDNEY

Your success is our story

OPPORTUNITIES
— International —

LIVING IN SYDNEY

Sydney is a very vibrant city. It is home to 100 beaches, plenty of bars and night clubs, lots of universities and colleges, a surrounding of National Parks and plenty of harbour islands. There is a lot of work and a lot of opportunity in Sydney. We want you to enjoy your stay in Sydney. So, to help you plan for a good time we have put together a few points about living in Sydney.

WHAT ARE THE DO'S AND DON'TS OF SYDNEY?

Sydney is a very vibrant city. There is a lot of nightlife, big art, music, Performing Arts and plenty of entertainment precincts for you. It is also a very scenic city. It carries a lot of beauty and plenty of Instagram moments. Because of this privilege held by the people of Sydney, there are a lot of norms you need to be aware of:

The Do's

- Go out for a night on the city
- Go trekking in the National Parks
- Enjoy the performing arts scene
- Go sailing on the harbour
- Go Surfing and swimming at the beach
- Climb the Bridge
- Go skiing in winter
- Visit the mountains
- Join the life-saving club
- Relax

The Don'ts

- Do not throw a loud party at your house without inviting your neighbours otherwise, they will call the police.
- Drink driving is seen as a crime in Australia
- Recreational drugs are illegal
- No means No
- Littering in National Parks
- Speeding when driving

Overall, Sydney is a fun place to live in. If you love the outdoors, social scene and are looking for opportunities then Sydney is your place to be.

WHAT CAN WE DO FOR FUN IN SYDNEY?

Sydney houses a lot of fun. If you love surfing, beaching, tanning, and swimming then you have the choice of more than 100 beaches to go to. There are beaches for swimming, surfing, fishing, nudie runs, barbecues, and more.

Sydney also has a vibrant nightlife. If you love dancing and singing and a few drinks, there are lots of big, crowded clubs or small boutique bars for you to choose from.

Outdoor sports and adventures are big in Sydney. Sydney is surrounded by national parks. If you love hiking, bush biking, and trekking there is lots for you to do.

You can also join a club. For instance, there is a big Toastmasters network in Sydney as well as a lot of sports clubs of all sports, social clubs, and business clubs. You will have fun in Sydney.

CAN WE CHANGE TO A DIFFERENT CITY?

Yes, you can. However, we recommend you see out the first part of your studies in Sydney and we can look at transferring you up to Brisbane or to a regional town if you truly wish to do so.

You will be paying for your course fees, food, health, and entertainment. In summary, the cost of living with our current package will come to approximately $25,500 per year which equates to $491 per week. This is variable depending on where you work, live, and play while in Sydney.

COST OF LIVING IN SYDNEY

CAN WE DRINK IN SYDNEY?

Yes. There is a vibrant drinking scene in Sydney however everyone is very conscious of the laws and implications. There is no tolerance for drink driving in Australia. It is illegal to go to work under the influence. Everyone has their responsibilities to make sure everyone is safe while drinking. Even though these guidelines are in place there is still a lot of groovy cocktails bars, whiskey lounges, beer breweries, and nightclubs for you to visit and enjoy.

CAN I HAVE FUN IF I DON'T DRINK IN SYDNEY?

Yes. Sydney has a lot for you to do if you do not drink alcohol. There are lots of cafes for you to socialize at, lots of social clubs, there is a very big health scene, plenty of national parks, over 100 beaches to visit, some excellent cycling tracks, a very big performing arts scene and traditional art movement as well as very big boating scene. If you want to get out and about and visit as much of Sydney as possible then a fun way of doing this is to go to one of the yachting clubs on a training day. Here you will find a lot of boat captains looking for extra deckhands to help with their yacht for a few hours (sometimes even days).

HEALTH SCENE

In Sydney, it is trendy to be happy and healthy. You will find yourself surrounded by a lot of people hooked on their exercise. Everyone wants to live a long happy life in Sydney therefore exercise, competition and an active lifestyle is normal. If you are into your health you will be able to join several clubs around Sydney and take part in the triathlons, swimming competitions, football scene and beach volleyball games.

National Parks

Sydney is surrounded by 132 National Parks. If you want to go for a short trek there is plenty of small national parks in the city that overlook the harbour. If you want to make a day of it you can travel out to one of the huge national parks and trek past waterfalls, mountain edges and plenty of beaches. If you love the outdoors you will love Sydney National Parks.

Beaches

Sydney is home to 100 beaches. Every beach is used for different activities.

If you love surfing, swimming, diving, snorkelling, sunbaking, running, and training there is a beach for you.

There are even a few nudie beaches in Sydney.

Sydneysiders love the beach scene and are very welcoming to new people joining the scene.

Sailing

Sydney hosts an internationally famous race every year called the Sydney to Hobart race. This is where sailors from around the world come to race through one of the roughest oceans during storm season. There is a lot of sailing clubs for you to join in Sydney. They are always looking for new members and are happy to teach people how to sail. Here is the link to the Sydney to Hobart race

www.rolexsydneyhobart.com

FESTIVALS

Sydney hosts a lot of annual festivals. One of the most famous festivals is the Sydney Mardi-Gras festival. These festivals bring the nightlife out of Sydney and ignites a lot of creativity within. Other festivals include the International Surfing Festival in Manly, Arts festival in Bondi Beach and National Food Festival in Randwick. There is plenty more to choose and experience.

Go to www.sydney.com to learn more about Sydney.